

Brian Gayle

Chief Accounting Officer

Brian Gayle has served as Altair's senior vice president, chief accounting officer since September 2018 and became the company's principal accounting officer in March 2021. Previously, Gayle served as Altair's vice president-corporate controller. Prior to these roles, Gayle began his career at Deloitte & Touche, LLP.

Gayle is a certified public accountant and holds a bachelor's degree of accountancy from the Walsh College.