

Altair– Data Extraction, Transformation, Load (ETL)

Product Brief

- + The Altair Data Analytics solution suite offers a complete approach to an enterprises data extraction, transformation, and loading (ETL) needs. While organizations are investing millions of dollars in developing “platforms” this often excludes users at the tactical edge who need low-code/no-code data analytics capabilities to make unstructured, semi-structured, and structured data sources usable for business intelligence.

Data Extraction

Data Transformation

Data Loading

Altair Differentiators

- + Low/No code DA solution suite can be leveraged by all the personas that are part of the data management life cycle.
- + Prebuilt connectivity to allow enterprises to extract, transform, and load data from any source to streamline data processing and reporting capabilities.
- + End-to-end, Data workflow solutions for all steps of a data lifecycle.
- + Full solution suite accessible through a single unit-based license model giving full access to all technologies within the tool chain

DoD/Federal/Industry Customers Include

- + United States Air Force/Army/Navy
- + Civilian Agencies
- + Defense Prime contractors
- + BFSI
- + Technology Firms

DoD Problems Solved

- + Real Time Asset Monitoring
- + Financial Reporting and Audit
- + Supply Chain Management and Logistics
- + Cyber Security Assessment
- + Compliance Reporting
- + Maintenance Reporting

